ABSTRACT

State that in the Sri Gunja Narasimha Swamy temple at T. Narasipur the observances (ಸಂಪ್ರದಾಯ) are after the Vadagale following; that the Govt: records & the proofs adduced by the petitioners' party amply prove that the observances are after the Vadagale following; that 4 years after 2 car festivals is being performed during which it is customary to

to take a Garuda figure painted on cloth, with the 12 three marks of the Vadagale fashion, in procession before the God & ~~that~~ & after further worship &c tied to the Dhwaja pillar of the temple; that last year contrary to mamool the Tengale Sectarians (Hundi Srigalachar & ~~Others~~ one or 2 others) petitioned to the Amildar praying that "Tilaka" should be painted in the "Garuda-patha"; that even after inquiries the Amildar has passed no orders in the matter; that the Car festival is to come off within a fortnight; that last year as the Garuda picture was not taken in procession in its usual form they submitted petitions & a telegram to the Govt.; that no orders have been passed till now on them; that if ~~this is not~~ the procession is not gone through as usual it is highly derogatory to the status, name &c of the petitioners and pray that early orders directing the performance of the usual decorations (poojas) be passed

State that the former Amildar Sundaraja Iyengar of the taluk appointed on Singalachar of the Vengalee sect as the Dharmathasi of Sri Gunjanarasimhaswamy Temple there; that the usual invitation letters to His Highness the Maharaja and Sri Para-Kalaswami on account of the car-festival were not sent this year, the simple reason being that they had to go with the Vadagalee mark, that on the of the car-festival (4th the usual honors to the Mahant were not paid though reminded at the moment, that all these are the outcome of the Dharmatharsi being young and inexperienced and of his sectarian prejudices.

Therefore pray that the Dharmatharsi may be removed and properly dealt with for thus wilfully omitting the usual honors.
